

MEET THE STAFF

Robert Bauer, Custodian

Robert Bauer is the new custodian at Immaculate Conception Parish. He began his job on June 10, 2010, and fills the custodian position which Paul McAndrew held until his retirement earlier this year.

Robert was born and raised in Menomonie. He moved to New Richmond in 2001 to begin a job in Hudson. He has previous custodial experience, and states that he enjoys custodial work. In the short time that he has worked here, he has enjoyed the working environment and the staff.

Robert is a member of the Willow River Players and enjoys performing dramas. In addition, he loves to sing and to whistle. At any given time, you might hear Robert whistling or singing while he works.

Robert loves the small town feel of life in New Richmond, as well of the central location of New Richmond between Eau Claire and the Twin Cities. He has three children and five grandchildren.
